All Bidders are advised of the following clarifications for the referenced solicitation:

- Question: Are Performance and Payment Bonds required for each school if the value of each school does not exceed the $100,000.00 threshold?

Answer: Should a vendor be awarded one or more of the school projects (line items) and the total (combined) cost of the project(s) is under $100,000.00, no performance or payment bonds are required. However, should a vendor be awarded one or more of the school projects (line items) and the total of the project(s) exceeds $100,000.00, then performance and payment bonds shall be required for the "total" of the awarded project(s). i.e. If a vendor is awarded two of the school projects and the total of the combined schools cost is $99,000.00, no bonds will be required. If the combined costs (total award) of the two schools are $100,000.00 or more, bonds shall be required.
