A MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

Dear PWCS Families:

Multiple opportunities for students entering middle school are offered in Prince William County Public Schools. Students may choose among several middle school programs. Your son or daughter has the following options:

- Remain in the regular program in your base middle school;
- Apply for the specialty program in your base middle school;
- Transfer for a specialty program at another middle school; or
- Transfer for the Pennington or Porter Traditional Schools.

I hope you will consider these options as you begin planning with your child for middle school. If you choose to apply for a middle school specialty program, three types of programs are available. Sixth-grade students may attend a specialty program in mathematics and science, a specialty program in world languages, or an International Baccalaureate Middle Years Programme.

Students may choose to apply to more than one program. If a program exceeds capacity, a lottery will be held to admit transfer students. Additional information on these programs has been included in this brochure.

In addition, fifth-grade students have the option of applying for a traditional school. Philip Michael Pennington School and Mary G. Porter School serve students in grades one through eight. Enrollment in both Pennington School and Porter School is limited. If more students apply than the school can admit, a lottery will be held. Additional information on these schools has been included in this brochure.

In order to attend a specialty program or traditional school, fifth-grade students must apply by February 1. All students must apply to be considered for such programs, even if they live in the attendance zone for the school where the specialty program is located.

Involved families are vital to student success in school. You are an important part of our school community.

Sincerely,

STEVEN L. WALTS
Superintendent of Schools
