

Capital Improvements Program

The School Division's construction program continues at an aggressive rate. Buckland Mills and Rosa Parks Elementary, and Potomac Middle School opened in September 2006. In the past five years, a total of fourteen schools have been constructed: nine elementary schools, three middle schools, and two high schools. Also in 2006, Woodbridge High School and Osbourn Park High School renewals/enclosures were completed as well as renewal and additions at Marumscos Hills and Belmont Elementary Schools.

A new middle school, Gainesville Middle School, is under construction and on schedule to open in September 2007, providing student enrollment relief to Bull Run and Marsteller Middle Schools.

Major renovations to renew and enclose classrooms at Rockledge and Kerrydale Elementary Schools continue. Also ongoing is the renewal and addition to Tyler Elementary School.

Samuel L. Gravely, Jr.
1922 - 2004
Vice Admiral, U.S. Navy (Retired)

Vice Admiral Gravely was the first African American to command a major naval warship (USS Jouett, DLG 29), the first African American to rise to the rank of Vice Admiral, and the first African American to command a U.S. Fleet (Commander, U.S. 3rd Fleet).

He lived by a philosophy that shaped his entire life, saying, "Success is the result of several factors. My formula is simply education plus motivation plus perseverance." Vice Admiral Gravely was a resident of Haymarket at the time of his death on October 22, 2004.
