

FAMILY LIFE EDUCATION (FLE) OBJECTIVES
Early Childhood Education I

Curriculum Strand	Objective Number	Objective and Description
Family Living and Community Relationships	FLE SOL 11.14	The student will identify criteria for selecting adequate child-care services. Students will identify child-care alternatives and establish guidelines for selecting appropriate care, considering pre-school education, after-school day care, the problems of children in self-care (“latchkey”) situations, and the need for quality and quantity of time in maintaining the well-being of the child.
Parenting Skills	FLE SOL 11.4	The student will explain how television can have both positive and negative effects on the development of children, adolescents, and adults. Content includes types of messages conveyed on television; techniques for analyzing television programs and commercials; and strategies for evaluating television offerings according to their potential to entertain, to educate, to reinforce concepts, to guide or misguide behavior, and to promote violence.