Authority of Prince William County School Board Members

Prince William County School Board members shall have legal authority only when acting collectively as a Board in regular or special session, or when empowered by Prince William County School Board action to act as a committee. Individual Board members do not have authority to take any action on behalf of the School Board unless authorized to do so by the School Board, acting as a whole, or as authorized by School Board policy. The Prince William County School Board shall not be bound by any statement or action of an individual Prince William County School Board member, except when such statement or action is under specific direction of the Prince William County School Board.

The members of the Prince William County School Board are responsible for implementing and monitoring this policy.

This policy and any related regulations shall be reviewed at least every five years and revised as needed.
