Political Activities

Political interests of any individual or group may not be promoted during the school day or at school-sponsored activities, including athletic events; however, school facilities may be used as polling places for elections. Students in Prince William County Public Schools shall not be required to convey or deliver any materials that (i) advocate the election or defeat of any candidate for elective office, (ii) advocate the passage or defeat of any referendum question, or (iii) advocate the passage or defeat of any matter pending before a local school board, local governing body, the General Assembly of Virginia, or the Congress of the United States.

The Associate Superintendent for Communications and Technology Services (or designee) is responsible for implementing and monitoring this policy.

The Associate Superintendent for Communications and Technology Services (or designee) is responsible for reviewing this policy in 2019.
