Participation of Noncustodial Parents in School Activities

The policy of the Prince William County School Board provides that noncustodial parents have the right to participate in various school activities. This policy facilitates and promotes the participation of parents in the education of their children.

The Associate Superintendent for Communications and Technology Services (or designee) is responsible for implementing and monitoring this policy.

The Associate Superintendent for Communications and Technology Services (or designee) is responsible for reviewing this policy in 2014.
