PERSONNEL

Certificated Personnel

Publications

1. If employees have a reasonable doubt that their writings may be of a controversial nature or misrepresent the Prince William County School System, they are encouraged to submit the written material to the appropriate Area Associate Superintendent.

2. If an article is published, the employee should forward a copy of the published article to the appropriate Area Associate Superintendent.

The appropriate Area Associate Superintendent is responsible for the implementation and monitoring of this regulation.