American Red Cross Blood Donor Program

Subject to the following conditions, secondary school students, 17 years of age or over, may, with the consent of a parent or legal guardian, consent to donate blood to the American Red Cross and may donate blood so long as the student meets the donor eligibility requirements.

A. The American Red Cross, a nonprofit, voluntary organization, shall be permitted to procure blood donations only from secondary school students 17 years of age or over so long as no consideration is given for the blood donation.

B. A parent or legal guardian of any student, 17 years of age or over, must consent to the donation of blood by the student. The student shall join with their parent or legal guardian in executing a Consent to Donate Blood on a form provided by the School Division (see Attachment I).

C. Students 17 years of age or over shall be required to meet donor eligibility requirements.

D. The donation of the blood shall be supervised and controlled by personnel of the American Red Cross who shall have final authority over whether the donor meets donor eligibility requirements.

The Associate Superintendent for Student Learning and Accountability (or designee) is responsible for implementing and monitoring this regulation.

The Associate Superintendent for Student Learning and Accountability (or designee) is responsible for reviewing this regulation in 2016.
