Bristow Run Elementary School

Students were asked to respond to the following prompt:

Bristow Run Elementary has a motto: Team on Track for the Future. Which means, first we are a TEAM.

Can you tell us some ways our school is inclusive or includes all kinds of people—not excluding any group or section of society?

Motto: Team on Track for the Future

- Every class has boys and girls, not just one kind of person. We are all different but the same.
- We work together.
- We have clubs that involve everyone. There is a Robotic Club which includes boys and girls. In Bristow Run Chorus, we will never exclude anyone of a different gender, religion, or race. We have accepted everyone who has tried out for Bristow Run Panther Chorus. We have not and never will exclude anyone at Bristow Run.
- If someone wants to join in, even if they aren't like you, you don't say no you can't play. You say come in, you can play.
- Include everybody even if they wear glasses or wear a shirt you don't like.
- There are people from all over the world who go to our school and everyone is welcome.
- Bristow Run has a lot of students, and all of them get the education they need. That way nobody gets left out.
