- Members of Potomac Middle School's Omega University (Omega U) mentor program attended and provided community service at the Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Celebration and Annual Oratorical Contest at the Hylton Memorial Chapel on Monday, January 16, 2012.
- The program focuses on community service, values-based mentoring, and leadership skills. Many students were previously struggling both academically and behaviorally, and are now flourishing with the mentoring and activities they participate in through this club.
- 14 students served as ushers and escorts for civic leaders, dignitaries, and guests attending the event. Each participant was awarded a certificate for completing 6 hours of community service.
