

Signal Hill Elementary

Prince William County
PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Providing A World-Class Education

Signal Hill Elementary

Celebrated Inclusive Schools Week

December 5-9, 2011

in many special ways!

Theme: Awareness Through Action

Prince William County
PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Providing A World-Class Education

Awareness Through Action

- Parent Involvement-Inclusive of all Exceptionalities this year through “Inclusive Parent Connection Nights” and “PEP”
- Bulletin Board/Student Support
- Student Essay Contest
- Grade Level Self-Assessment
- Inclusive Wellness Initiatives (Physical Education)
- Staff Thank You Breakfast
- Student Announcements
- School-wide Inclusion Quilt
- Lesson Plan Suggestions
- Student Buddies in Autism/PK/ID Classes

Training Parents with I-PAD

- Three Autism Teachers trained parents to use I-PAD apps to help their children with visual schedules, communication, and reading.

Prince William County

PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Providing A World-Class Education

Inclusive Nights for Everyone

- Parents, siblings, teachers, PTA members... Something for everyone!
- Babysitting provided for Inclusive Parent and PEP Nights

School-wide Inclusive Activities

Three Winners in the First Signal Hill School wide Essay Contest—“What Inclusiveness Means to Me.”

All students who participated received a certificate

Prince William County
PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Providing A World-Class Education