Reporting Form: Allegation of Sexual Misconduct Involving One or More Students

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) and School Board policies prohibit harassment based on sex, (including gender identity and sexual orientation) in any PWCS educational program or activity. This form may be used to report allegations of sexual misconduct involving one or more students that may constitute sexual harassment under PWCS Regulation 738-1, "Resolution of Allegations Against Students of Sexual Misconduct." All reports will be responded to promptly. Parents of students involved in the alleged misconduct will be notified of the report. The principal will be notified of any report involving a student or employee at the school.

Not all misconduct of a sexual nature constitutes Title IX Sexual Harassment under PWCS Regulation 738-1. Misconduct not constituting Title IX Sexual Harassment will be investigated and resolved under disciplinary procedures set forth in the PWCS Code of Behavior, if applicable. If the person accused of the sexual misconduct is a PWCS employee or a third party under the control of PWCS, the allegations shall be resolved in accordance with procedures applicable to the investigation and resolution of employee misconduct.

If you have any questions about Title IX or how to complete this form, please contact Equity and Student Relations at 571-374-6839 or at TitleIXEquity@pwcs.edu.
